

Pelletstown Educate Together National School

Whole School Plan: English

2020

Introductory Statement

This whole school plan for English was initially formulated in consultation with teaching staff in Pelletstown Educate Together N.S. in term 3 of the 2016/2017 school year and revised in term 3 of the 2019/2020 school year.

Rationale

We prioritised this area of the curriculum because of the increasing importance placed on literacy because of the National Literacy and Numeracy Strategy 2011-2020. We also prioritised this curriculum area in light of the implementation of the new Primary Language Curriculum which came on stream in September 2016 and was revised in September 2019. Staff have engaged in training days based on the new Primary Language Curriculum and will continue to engage in these.

We believe that a consistent, structured and intensive oral language and phonics programme will improve learning and teaching in all areas of the curriculum. Therefore, we are using the Jolly Phonics programme to enhance the competence and confidence in phonics and blending, which will enable development in reading and writing. We are using the Starlight oral language programme from Junior Infants to Sixth Class to enhance competence and confidence in speaking and listening. A thematic approach is used to teach Oral language, Reading and Writing from 3rd to 6th class. To further develop English comprehension we are using the Building Bridges of Understanding programme and to develop written English we use First Steps.

Vision

It is our vision to create a school where our pupils will communicate, read and write with and for each other, staff, parents/carers, visitors and the wider school community with clarity, confidence, fluency and respect.

Aims

We aim, through this plan, drawn up in accordance with the Primary Language Curriculum, to set out our approach to language teaching. This plan will form the basis for teachers' long and short-term planning. It will also inform new teachers of the approaches and methodologies used in our school.

We endorse the aims of the New Primary Language Curriculum, which are presented in 3 groups. The Primary Language Curriculum, and this whole-school plan, aims to support teachers to:

1. Children and their Lives

- enable children to build on prior knowledge and experience of language and language learning to enhance their language learning
- encourage children of different languages and cultures to be proud of and share their heritage
- recognise the wide variation in experience, ability and language style which children bring to language learning in school as a first step in enabling them to engage in relevant and meaningful communicative relationships.

2. Children's communications and connections with others

- embrace children's uniqueness by nurturing their appreciation of their home language, their understanding of language and diversity, and their ability to use different languages, gestures and tools to communicate with people in a variety of contexts and situations.
- encourage and enable children to communicate effectively in both the first and second language of the school and to communicate in their heritage language for a variety of purposes.
- enable children to fully engage with and enjoy a wide range of relevant and meaningful linguistic and communicative experiences with peers and adults.

3. Children's language learning and development

- promote a positive disposition towards communication and language by fostering within children a lifelong interest in and a love of language learning for personal enjoyment and enrichment
- broaden children's understanding of the world through a rich variety of language experiences and through fostering an awareness and appreciation of other languages and cultures in an enriching learning environment
- encourage children to engage personally with and think critically about a broad range of spoken, gesticulated, written and multimodal texts
- support children to develop their literacy skills and enable them to progress at their own learning pace in oral language, reading and writing
- nurture within children an awareness of language, allowing them to appreciate and understand the content and structure of languages and acquire a basic understanding of the history of languages and other cultures.

School Library

The school library was launched in 2016. Books are sourced to reflect the diversity of our school population and the wider world. Books of various different languages are also available. Each pupil visits the library weekly with their class. We hope to familiarise the children with the features and procedures of an actual library such as the scanning in and out of books, the Dewey system of cataloguing etc. when such resources allow.

The children don't currently borrow books from the school library. We hope to create a computerised system of scanning books to move to a more efficient and thorough system of cataloguing and caring for books and with a view to the children being allowed to borrow books from the school library as they get older.

Rhymes

Children in Infant classes will learn one Nursery Rhyme per week - See Nursery Rhyme Scheme (Infant level)

Poetry

Children from First to Sixth class will learn one poem per month by heart. A poem will also be used as a stimulus for discussion and integrated with Art/SESE/Ethical Ed - See suggested Poetry Scheme at each class level from First to Sixth. Children are provided with frequent opportunities to experience poetry and are encouraged to respond to it in different ways. Children are given opportunities to write poetry after teacher modelling and immersion in the genre. Children are given the opportunity to display and read poetry.

Story

The children will explore the following types of story between Infants and Second class Fairy Tales, Fables, Myths and Legends. Picture books should not only be used merely as storybooks but as a meaningful context for teaching sight-words, phonics, fluency, comprehension, concepts of print, phonological awareness and critical thinking. Novels will be used from First to Sixth class and will be integrated with SESE where possible. See the Story Scheme at each class level.

Phonological Awareness & Phonics

Phonological Awareness and Phonics is an integral part of the acquisition of the English language and a huge emphasis is placed on its importance in the early school years.

Phonological Awareness is taught explicitly using the Phonological Awareness Package (Jane Shiels & Yvonne Sawyers) which can be found;

<https://static1.squarespace.com/static/5390bc6ae4b02b3118d38292/t/53b3e850e4b0f49e4e2a9469/1404299344967/phonologocialawarenesspackage11.pdf>

The school uses the Jolly Phonics scheme primarily to teach phonics. See the Phonics scheme at each class level.

Phonological Awareness Methodologies:

- Word Awareness
- Syllabic Awareness
- Phonemic Awareness - Isolation of initial/final/medial sounds

Alphabet

Reciting the alphabet will be taught in Junior and Senior Infants. Children will be asked to say the alphabet starting and stopping at different intervals to promote familiarity. Children will be encouraged to state the name and the sound together using the Sight and Sounds Book A & B in Infants. Awareness of vowels will be taught from Junior Infants.

Sight Words

Sight words are taught as Tricky Words in Junior and Senior Infants as part of the Jolly Phonics programme. Dolch list is used to teach Sight words from First Class followed by Fry's list. A multi-sensory approach is used to teach all sight words. The sight word is taught in isolation initially before being taught in context.

Spelling

We recognise that, as a whole school, a multi-dimensional approach to spelling is essential. Every class has varying levels of spelling ability and the pupils are differentiated and assessed accordingly. Some children struggle to move from the phonetic to transitional stage of spelling. The Jolly Grammar programme will be employed as pupils begin to learn spellings formally, from 1st class.

Objectives for Spelling

- Equip all pupils with strong phonological awareness skills incorporating awareness of syllables, rhyme and phonemes in words
- Spelling must be taught
- Spelling must be fun
- Realisation that not all spelling is phonetically based
- Spelling activities should be written
- Spelling lessons should be daily; short and snappy
- Spelling strategies are taught to all children especially those who experience difficulty
- Self-checking is continuously encouraged to foster a more independent approach
- Spelling must never be a barrier to children's writing as it is vital not to dampen a child's enthusiasm to write by always insisting on accurate spelling
- Children are encouraged to take risks and attempt unknown words
- Provide opportunities for children to 'problem-solve' the rules themselves
- Children begin spelling informally in Senior Infants through exposure to phonics. Formalised spelling is introduced in First Class and continues throughout the remainder of the pupils' years in the school.

Source of Spellings

- Dolch list
- Brendan Culligan's Corewords 1 & 2
- Phonics Scheme
- Children's Writing Needs
- Extension Work: Themed Spelling
- Dictionary Book/Folder
- Fallon's Spelling Book
- Jolly Grammar

Our Approach to the Teaching and Learning of Spelling

- As spelling is visual, learning to spell cannot follow a completely phonics-based programme. The pattern in words must be visual so that words that look alike are grouped together although they may not sound alike. e.g. caught, daughter, taught
- Our focus is on letter patterns instead of just learning mat/hat, but/cut, we focus on 'at' patterns (letter strings), and therefore include ate, what, etc. It is important that we teach words which look the same irrespective of their sound, e.g. come, some, women...
- Children are taught to look at words, see words within words and compare letter strings regardless of sound
- Spelling is taught with emphasis on the type of spelling errors rather than the number of errors
- The use of mnemonics and other strategies are encouraged to help children who struggle with spelling
- Look, Say, Cover, Write, Check Methodology (Look, Write & Check are all visual which emphasises the importance to spelling being a visual endeavour)
- Using Sound Letter Relationships
- Using Pattern
- Continuation from class to class
- Linking with onset and rime

- Print Rich Environment (ensuring balance between cursive displays and print displays)
- Class Based Incentives
- Spelling Box
- Spelling Bingo for weekly assessments of spellings
- Spelling Grid Activities

Assessing Spelling

The children are encouraged to improve their spelling in writing rather than an over emphasis on 'the Friday spelling test'. Children may perform well in their spellings tests but unless there is an improvement in the child's writing, it is pointless. Children are assessed by way of a spelling/dictation test every day/Friday/Monday. This will consist of a selection of words from their spelling list of that week and/or sentence dictation. This will take place in the form of a spelling bingo game. This is combined with regular assessment of the child's independent writing.

Correcting Spelling

- Teachers will correct the spelling/dictation tests and return them to the children.
- Teachers are encouraged to avoid marking every spelling wrong, instead to underline the part of the word that is incorrect.
- We do not make public any child's results
- Teachers are encouraged to avoid asking children to write out corrections several times
- The children must have their test signed periodically by parents/carers

Spelling and the Learning Support/Resource Teacher

Arrangements may be made under the direction of the class teacher.

Timetable and Spelling

- Monday-Thursday: 20 - 30 minutes per week, introducing and teaching new words, with the assistance of spelling strategies, when necessary, for spelling homework that night
- Friday: up to 30 minutes for Spelling/Dictation check or daily check for 5 minutes

Parental Involvement and Spelling

Parents are encouraged to ensure that their children learn their spellings each night as part of their homework using a multisensory approach. This can be done by using the Look, Say, Cover, Write, Check Method and by practising sentence dictation.

Grammar & Punctuation

Grammar and punctuation are introduced formally from first class through the Jolly Grammar Programme and the Starlight programme as a supplement (from 3rd-6th). See each class level for resources

Handwriting/Penmanship

As per the primary language curriculum, children will be encouraged to write legibly and fluently in a chosen script using a personal style, ensuring correct formation of lower and upper-case letters. As children have been taught to form letters in cursive script they will be encouraged to write in this script. Throughout the school there is an emphasis on penmanship. Each week, during assembly, children are rewarded for consistent or extra effort in handwriting as a Handwriting Hero. A sample of their handwriting will be displayed weekly on the Handwriting noticeboard. The pupils begin cursive script from Junior Infants and continue this style of writing through all classes.

In Junior Infants, the pupils begin by learning one lower-case letter per week. As their fine-motor skills develop, the pupils continue learning 2 letters per week until the formation of all letters is taught. In Senior Infants they will learn how to form upper case letters.

The importance of precision and presentation is constantly reiterated and encouraged in copies, worksheets, free writing and otherwise. Children will present copies neatly always using a date, title and ruling margins where necessary. An emphasis will be placed on this from second class up. A sample copy page layout can be viewed in the Appendices.

Our Approach to Handwriting:

- The best way to ensure good handwriting is to learn it correctly from the beginning
- A good cursive style of handwriting will ultimately improve the speed and fluency of writing, which in turn will assist the child's written expression.
- Good penmanship also improves spelling since letter strings are connected when the child is writing a word.
- Good posture, pencil-grip and how the children form their letters are explicitly taught
- Children with poor motor control or little stamina need a cursive model that makes minimum demands on their physical abilities - when the brain has a visual image of the word then the hand takes over.
- Pre-writing patterns are taught before separate letter formations at infant level
- Children are encouraged to practise common letter strings after learning how to form an isolated letter, e.g. 'a' - ate, at, eat, etc...
- On completion of a page of the workbook 'Handwriting Today' the children are to copy that same letter into their handwriting copies to reinforce the formation of that letter.
- A multi-sensory approach to handwriting is adopted in the school
- Where appropriate, all teachers will follow the same style/format of cursive handwriting throughout the school.

- Where appropriate, all teachers are encouraged to use cursive script on classroom displays, on the Smartboards/whiteboards and when correcting the children's work, etc.
- Cursive script is encouraged for all written activity and not just English alone.
- Excellent handwriting or significant improvements in handwriting is awarded in assembly weekly with a 'Handwriting Hero' certificate.

- If a mistake is made when writing in ink children are instructed to put brackets around the offending word and a line through it. (-----).
- Tip-ex is not allowed in school.

Pen Licences

- Pen licences will be introduced from 4th class onwards. Children will present their work and take care with their handwriting consistently before being awarded a pen licence. Necessary modifications will be made for children with SEN by the relevant staff in the school.
- The pupils will use handwriting pens first before progressing to biro's in 5th/6th class.

Parental Awareness of Handwriting

- Parents will be informed of the handwriting style in the school at parent/class meetings. They will also see it as part of homework.

- Guidelines/instruction for parents will be provided at the teacher's discretion

Creative Writing

Children begin Creative Writing informally in the infant classes. This is stimulated and developed in many ways such as through Aistear and through the use of free drawing (Infant Classes) and free writing copies. Creative Writing is introduced formally in First Class and continues throughout the remainder of the children's years in the school.

Children with Different Needs

English activities will be differentiated in order to meet the needs of the children in a particular class. Children with special educational needs will receive support from our Special Education Teachers. We promote an active learning environment, with children working in groups at their level, where the class teacher is responsible for the learning in the classroom and is assisted by the SET team. Team teaching and Station teaching blocks are arranged throughout the year.

Where a teacher recognises that a child displays a particular ability in English, this will be communicated to the parents, so that the child may have opportunity to take out of school lessons, circumstances permitting. Teachers will encourage such children to read and write for their classmates, so that the other children will have opportunities to listen and respond.

E.A.L. Provision

There is a high percentage of children for whom English is an Additional Language at Pelletstown ETNS. Their proficiency in English is tested biannually (September and May/June) using the PSAK assessments. Sanctioning of EAL teachers is based on such and the school will seek to ensure that adequate staffing levels are in place to meet the needs of our EAL pupils. EAL teachers work in a withdrawal and in-class support capacity, dependent on the needs of individual classes.

Equality of Participation and Access

As an Educate Together school, equal opportunities will be given to all children regardless of gender, ethnic background, socio-economic status across all strands and activities.

Homework

Teachers can assign English homework at their discretion in accordance with the guidelines of the homework policy and the Department of Education. As a core subject, English homework should be assigned daily. From first class spellings are assigned each day. Parents/carers are regularly reminded of the importance of oral language and reading homework, as well as written work.

Organisational Planning

The teaching of English will be conducted in line with the time allocation as set out by the DES and NCCA (ref: Circular 0056/2011), as follows:

Class Level:	Time Allocation for Language 1 (i.e. English):
Junior and Senior Infants	4 hours per week
First - Sixth Class	5 hours per week
Discretionary time may also be used for the teaching and learning of English

The teaching of English will be organised on both a whole-class and team-teaching level. A team teaching approach will be taken to support the teaching and learning of English and will involve the input of the support staff in the classroom. Such will be organised based on the needs of each class and will focus on specific areas of the curriculum.

Resources and ICT

As a new developing school, we endeavour to build on and develop the resources available for teaching and learning as the school grows. Teachers will be encouraged to maximise resources available to them. The school will ensure that teachers' resources for school-wide programmes will be available to all teachers, including Jolly Phonics, First Steps, Building Bridges of Understanding, PM+, Oxford Reading Tree and English as an Additional Language programmes.

ICT will be used in classroom and support settings to further support the teaching and learning of English in the form of Interactive Whiteboards, iPads, online programmes etc.

An appropriate amount of money may be requested from the Board of Management to fund our English programme. Parents may be requested to make a very small contribution should we find a shortfall in finances. Contributions may also be requested from the Parents Teacher Association, through fundraising events and sponsorship from local businesses.

Individual Teachers Planning and Reporting

Class Teachers' Planning:

Individual teachers will plan their yearly English programme specifically for their own class, while at the same time ensuring that their plan coordinates with and is reflective of this overall school plan. This should ensure clear progression as children move from class to class. Teachers at each class level will collaborate on content and methodology for English from this whole school plan and it will be monitored and assessed on an on-going basis.

Teachers are expected to complete yearly (or termly) plans for the teaching of English in their classes and are responsible for the implementation of such. Learning outcomes directly from the Primary Language Curriculum are included in each teachers' long term scheme. They must also include English in their fortnightly (or weekly) plan. Such must include specific objectives, learning content and key vocabulary.

The Cúntas Míosúil must document what has been covered in the teaching and learning of English each month

Support Teachers' Planning:

EAL teachers must complete fortnightly plans detailing the teaching of English to such pupils. Teaching of English for pupils with special educational needs will also be documented in the planning documents of S.E.T. staff.

Staff development

Staff needs will be assessed and the local Education Centre will be requested to provide suitable ongoing training as the need arises. The staff will also avail of training as provided by the Department of Education and Skills, particularly in relation to further training days for the implementation of the Primary Language Curriculum.

Parental Involvement/Community Links

Parents/carers have a crucial role to play in their children's language development. Talking to adults, hearing them talk, hearing stories read and told and being encouraged to read all have an influence on children's language development that supports and complements the school experience. Parents are informed of this at the beginning of the year at each class meeting.

Success Criteria

Means of assessing this plan are as follows:

- Teacher/parent/pupil/community feedback
- Children's feedback regarding their learning
- Suggestions and reports of DES Inspectorate
- Monthly records of teaching and learning

The success of this plan will be measured by teacher observation of pupil enjoyment and participation in oral language, reading and writing activities. The success of the plan will also be measured by the achievement of pupils in standardised tests. Feedback and reflection will be used as an informal method of measuring the success of this whole-school plan.

Implementation and Review

(a) Roles and Responsibilities

The plan will be implemented by all members of the teaching staff. The principal will play a role in overseeing its implementation. Guidance on particular aspects of the plan can be sought from Aoife Byrne (English coordinator).

(b) Timeframe

This plan will be reviewed in Term 1 2022/2023.

Ratification and Communication

The attention of all newly appointed staff will be drawn to this whole-school English plan upon their appointment to the school by the NQT mentor. This policy will be published on the school website, upon its development, and a copy of it will be provided to the Parent Teacher Association, when established. A copy of this policy will be made available to the Department of Education and Skills and the Patron, if requested. Hard copies of this, and all school policies, are available at the school upon request.

A Happy Child by Anonymous

My house is red - a little house
A happy child am I.
I laugh and play the whole day long,
I hardly ever cry.

I have a tree, a green, green tree,
To shade me from the sun;
And under it I often sit,
When all my play is done.

I had a Box of Crayons

I had a box of crayons,
all shiny, straight and new.
I lent a friend my crayon,
and oops! it broke in two.
my friend said she was sorry,
but I said, "I don't care!"
'cause now we both can color
with one crayon - we can share!

Now We Are Six by A.A. Milne

When I was One,
I had just begun.
When I was Two,
I was nearly new.
When I was Three
I was hardly me.
When I was Four,
I was not much more.
When I was Five,
I was just alive.
But now I am Six,
I'm as clever as clever,
So I think I'll be six now for ever and ever.

THE RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS by Grace Wells

The recipe for happiness in our house is
to take a cup of flour,
and milk, two eggs, a pinch of salt,
and whisk for half an hour.

Then take the creamy mixture
to the steaming frying pan,
ladle little circles in,
as many as you can.

Watch them all turn gold and brown,
then sit down to eat,
sugar and lemon on one side,
pour maple syrup to complete.

Spreading Love Through Acts Of Kindness by Lenora McWhorter

K - Kindness is shown by what we say and do.
I - It says to the other person, "I care about you."
N - Never neglect to show kindness to everyone you see.
D - Day or night, young or old, whoever it may be.
N - Nothing touches the heart like a big, warm smile.
E - Everyone needs to feel loved, whether adult or child.

S - So smile at someone to show them that you care.

S - Show kindness and love to everyone everywhere.

The Rainbow by Christina Rossetti

Boats sail on the rivers,
And ships sail on the seas;
But clouds that sail across the sky
Are prettier far than these.

There are bridges on the rivers,
As pretty as you please;
But the bow that bridges heaven,
And overtops the trees,
And builds a road from earth to sky,
Is prettier far than these.

The Crayon Box That Talked by Shane DeRolf

While walking in a toy store,
the day before today,
I overheard a crayon box
with many things to say.

"I don't like red!" said yellow. And Green said, "Nor do I!
And no one here like orange, but no one knows just why."
"We are a box of crayons that doesn't get along," said Blue to all the others,
"Something here is wrong!"

Well I bought that box of crayons and took it home with me.
And laid out all the crayons so the crayons could all see.

They watched me as I coloured with Red and Blue and Green,
And Black and White and Orange, and every color in between.
They watched as Green became the grass and Blue became the sky.
The Yellow sun was shining bright on White clouds drifting by.

Colours changing as they touched, becoming something new.
They watched me as I coloured, they watched 'til I was through.
And when I'd finally finished, I began to walk away.
And as I did, the crayon box had something more to say.

"I do like Red!" said Yellow, And Green said, "So do I!
And Blue, you were terrific so high up in the sky!"
"We are a box of crayons, each one of us unique,
but when we get together, the picture is complete!"

I AM by Lucinda Jacobs

I am a tortoise crawling out of bed in the morning
I am a cat lapping up my milk at breakfast

I am a puppy tumbling in the classroom door
I am an ant pushing my load uphill all day
I am an eagle diving on my snack at breaktime
I am a lizard snoozing in the sun of story time
I am a cheetah racing in the afternoon park
I am a lion roaring at the top of the hill
I am a bear with my honey at teatime
I am an owl blinking in the twilight
I am a salmon swimming upstream against sleep
I am the dreamer with dreams deep as the ocean.

Ants At A Glance by Shiju Sugunan

Here's a rant
About the tiny ant.

We see them parade in an orderly line,
A habit that sounds just fine.

Carrying weights heavier than them,
Showing us how hard work turns into beautiful gems.

They work as a team to get work done,
Making us believe that together we can even reach the sun.

The ants come out after a rain,
Teaching us survival and overcoming pain.

They're always fond of sugar and sweets,
Reminding us to cover food and be neat.

Sometimes they will give us a tiny prick,
Alerting us that violence is as bad as being sick.

Hard to believe this tiny creature
Is full of wisdom in miniature.

Colours by Sheldon Silverstein

My skin is kind of sort of brownish.
Pinkish yellowish white.
My eyes are greyish blueish green,
But I'm told they look orange in the night.
My hair is reddish blondish brown,
But it's silver when it's wet.
And all the colors I am inside.
Have not been invented yet.

Limericks By Edward Lear

There was an Old Man with a beard,
Who said, 'It is just as I feared!

Two Owls and a Hen,
Four Larks and a Wren,
Have all built their nests in my beard!"

There was an Old Person of Ischia,
Whose conduct grew friskier and friskier;
He dance hornpipes and jigs,
And ate thousands of figs,
That lively Old Person of Ischia.

There was an Old Man in a boat,
Who said, 'I'm afloat, I'm afloat!'
When they said, 'No! you ain't!'
He was ready to faint,
That unhappy Old Man in a boat.

There was a Young Lady of Hull,
Who was chased by a virulent bull;
But she seized on a spade,
And called out, 'Who's afraid?'
Which distracted that virulent bull.

There was an Old Person of Ems,
Who casually fell in the Thames;
And when he was found
They said he was drowned,
That unlucky Old Person of Ems.

There was an Old Man who said, 'Hush!
I perceive a young bird in this bush!'
When they said, 'Is it small?'
He replied, 'Not at all!
It is four times as big as the bush!'

There was a Young Lady of Russia,
Who screamed so that no one could hush her;
Her screams were extreme,
No one heard such a scream,
As was screamed by that lady of Russia.

There was an Old Person of Ewell,
Who chiefly subsisted on gruel;
But to make it more nice
He inserted some mice,

Which refreshed that Old Person of Ewell.

There was an old man in a tree,
Whose whiskers were lovely to see;
But the birds of the air,
Pluck'd them perfectly bare,
To make themselves nests on that tree.

There is a Young Lady whose nose
Continually prospers and grows;
When it grew out of sight,
she exclaimed in a fright,
"Oh! Farewell to the end of my nose!"

There was an Old Person of Dean,
Who dined on one pea and one bean;
For he said,
"More than that would make me too fat,"
That cautious Old Person of Dean.

There was an Old Person of Dover,
Who rushed through a field of blue Clover;
But some very large bees,
Stung his nose and his knees,
So he very soon went back to Dover.

There was an Old Man of Peru,
Who watched his wife making a stew;
But once by mistake,
In a stove she did bake,
That unfortunate Man of Peru.

There was a Young Lady whose bonnet,
Came untied when the birds sate upon it;
But she said: 'I don't care!
All the birds in the air
Are welcome to sit on my bonnet!'

I Will Soar By Annette R. Hershey

If I were a birdie,
I'd head up to the sky.
I'd spread my wings like sunshine.
I know I could fly mighty high!

If I were a birdie,
My feathers would be bright.
Every color would be striking.
I'd soar and reach new heights.

If I were a birdie,
I'd sing a lovely song.
Everyone would stop and listen;
They would begin to sing along.

If I were a birdie,
I'd follow all my dreams.
Small streams to vast oceans,
Under golden bright sunbeams.

If I were a birdie,
I'd flit about from tree to tree
With many different flocks of birdies.
We would be free to be free.

If I were a birdie,
I'd head up to the sky.
I'd spread my wings like sunshine.
I know I could fly mighty high!

FOX by Leanne O'Sullivan

Halfway along the way a fox appeared
out of the perishing hedgerows and stopped
on the road in front of him,

the lines of her breast straight and clear,
fear having fallen away from there.
What is she doing? he thought. She said,

I am waiting to see what you will do next.
That's funny, he said, beginning to follow,
I am doing the very same thing.

And that was the way they went, morning
after morning, the hedgerows turning
their infinite colours, the body with its one fire.

The Moon by Robert Louis Stevenson

The moon has a face like the clock in the hall;
She shines on thieves on the garden wall,
On streets and fields and harbour quays,
And birdies asleep in the forks of the trees.

The squalling cat and the squeaking mouse,
The howling dog by the door of the house,
The bat that lies in bed at noon,
All love to be out by the light of the moon.

But all of the things that belong to the day
Cuddle to sleep to be out of her way;
And flowers and children close their eyes
Till up in the morning the sun shall arise.

ME IN A TREE by Julie O'Callaghan

Unfortunately it wasn't a luxury tree house
with hot and cold running cocoa or with a robin

bringing me breakfast in bed.
A squirrel didn't toss acorns
at me when I needed to wake up.
No - that wasn't how it was.

I hid high up in the leaves.
So many thoughts were floating.
I speared them on to twigs to see them twinkle in the sun.

But now I realise
I named this poem the wrong thing.
It's not me in a tree.
It's the tree in me.

I Love the Look of Words by Maya Angelou

Popcorn leaps, popping from the floor of a hot black skillet
and into my mouth.
Black words leap,
snapping from the white
page. Rushing into my eyes. Sliding into my brain which gobbles them

the way my tongue and teeth
chomp the buttered popcorn.

When I have stopped reading, ideas from the words stay stuck
in my mind, like the sweet smell of butter perfuming my fingers long after the popcorn
is finished.

I love the book and the look of words
the weight of ideas that popped into my mind
I love the tracks
of new thinking in my mind.

Waiting At The Window by AA Milne

These are my two drops of rain
Waiting on the window-pane.

I am waiting here to see
Which the winning one will be.

Both of them have different names.
One is John and one is James.

All the best and all the worst
Comes from which of them is first.

James has just begun to ooze.
He's the one I want to lose.

John is waiting to begin.
He's the one I want to win.

James is going slowly on.
Something sort of sticks to John.

John is moving off at last.
James is going pretty fast.

John is rushing down the pane.
James is going slow again.

James has met a sort of smear.
John is getting very near.

Is he going fast enough?
(James has found a piece of fluff.)

John has quickly hurried by.

(James was talking to a fly.)

John is there, and John has won!
Look! I told you! Here's the sun!

Make Me A Garden by Sylvia Stults

Help me design my garden of life
Full of iris, crocus, and lily
With daffodils that shine so bright
Like the sun of the greater deities.

Make me a path that curves around trees
Of stepping stone, wood chip, and moss
Varying in array of colors
Causing one's mind to venture in thought.

Make me a garden so rich in hue
That the sun will fight not to set,
Where merely viewing its beauty
All differences one will forget.

Make me a garden like people of the world,
All different in culture and view,
Contributing to the person I am
Without your prejudicial few.

A garden of only one color, it seems
Would be dull and so very alone.
I want my garden of life to be filled
With every color known.

Drum Dream Girl by Margarita Engle

On an island of music
in a city of drumbeats
the drum dream girl dreamed

of pounding tall conga drums
tapping small bongó drums
and boom boom boozing
with long, loud sticks
on big, round, silvery
moon-bright timbales.

But everyone
on the island of music
in the city of drumbeats
believed that only boys
should play drums

so the drum dream girl
had to keep dreaming quiet secret drumbeat dreams.

At outdoor cafés that looked like gardens
she heard drums played by men
but when she closed her eyes
she could also hear
her own imaginary
music.

When she walked under wind-wavy palm trees
in a flower-bright park
she heard the whir of parrot wings
the clack of woodpecker beaks
the dancing tap
of her own footsteps
and the comforting pat
of her own heartbeat.

At carnivals, she listened to the rattling beat of towering dancers
on stilts

and the dragon clang
of costumed drummers
wearing huge masks.

At home, her fingertips
rolled out their own
dreamy drum rhythm
on tables and chairs...

and even though everyone
kept reminding her that girls
on the island of music
have never played drums

the brave drum dream girl dared to play
tall conga drums
small bongó drums
and big, round, silvery
moon-bright timbales.

Her hands seemed to fly
as they rippled
rapped and pounded all the rhythms
of her drum dreams.

Her big sisters were so excited that they invited her to join their new all-girl dance band

but their father said only boys
should play drums.

So the drum dream girl
had to keep dreaming
and drumming alone

until finally her father offered
to find a music teacher
who could decide if her drums deserved
to be heard.

The drum dream girl's teacher was amazed.
The girl knew so much
but he taught her more
and more
and more

and she practiced
and she practiced
and she practiced

until the teacher agreed that she was ready to play her small bongó drums
outdoors at a starlit café
that looked like a garden

where everyone who heard her dream-bright music
sang and danced and decided that girls should always be allowed to play

drums

and both girls and boys should feel free
to dream

WORDS by Olivia Barabanchuk

Words
Hurt more
Than paper cuts
And slaps across the face

They sting
More than
Lemon juice
On open wounds defaced

They litter
Our bodies
Like awful scars
Reminding of the fights

We try To hide
Them through the days
And heal on lonely nights

Free To Be You! by Lavonna N. Sinclair (not included)

I see you there, hiding in the dark.
Don't be afraid, I am here to help.
Look closely, don't you know me?
You see how I walk and talk; I am Unique!
You see my face; I am Beauty!
You see my smile; I am Wonderful!
You see how I Believe; I am Proud too!
Yes, I am you!
Here, take my hand.
For when the dark tries to enter,
Hold on as tight as you can,
For your Strength is your Heart's defender.
I won't lie to you, there may be some sad days,
But it's okay to cry.
It's okay to fail.
Just get up again throw all those bad things and feelings into the garbage pail.
Hold your head up, smile and give it another try.
Remember to always do Your best!
No matter what you choose to do,
Don't worry about any negativity from the rest.
Just be You!

A Daydream by Lolo T. Frenchie (not included yet)

A daydream
A world of extreme
A fantasy place
Or even outer space
A place for you
Where you can pass through
When you're feeling blue and alone
A place of your own
Where anything goes
And there's no shadows
A place where smiles gleam
And everyone is a team
This is my daydream
My place of joy and hope

Being Brave At Night by Edgar Guest (not included yet)

The other night 'bout two o'clock, or maybe it was three,
An elephant with shining tusks came chasing after me.
His trunk was wavin' in the air an' spoutin' jets of steam
An' he was out to eat me up, but still I didn't scream
Or let him see that I was scared - a better thought I had,
I just escaped from where I was and crawled in bed with dad.

One time there was a giant who was horrible to see,
He had three heads and twenty arms, an' he came after me
And red hot fire came from his mouths and every hand was red
And he declared he'd grind my bones and make them into bread.
But I was just too smart for him, I fooled him might bad,
Before his hands could collar me I crawled in bed with dad.

I ain't scared of nothin that comes pesterin' me at night.
Once I was chased by forty ghosts all shimmery an' white.
An' I just raced 'em round the room an' let 'em think maybe
I'd have to stop an' rest awhile, when they could capture me.
Then when they leapt onto my bed, Oh Gee! But they were mad
To find that I had slipped away an' crawled in bed with dad.

No giants, ghosts or elephants have dared to come in there
'Coz if they did he'd beat 'em up and chase 'em to their lair.
They just hang 'round the children's rooms
an' snap an' snarl an' bite
An' laugh if they can make 'em yell for help with all their might.
But I don't ever yell out loud. I'm not that sort of lad,
I slip from out the covers and I crawl in bed with dad.

Wind On The Hill by A.A. Milne (not included yet)

No one can tell me,
Nobody knows,
Where the wind comes from,
Where the wind goes.

It's flying from somewhere
As fast as it can,
I couldn't keep up with it,
Not if I ran.

But if I stopped holding
The string of my kite,
It would blow with the wind
For a day and a night.

And then when I found it,
Wherever it blew,
I should know that the wind
Had been going there too.

So then I could tell them
Where the wind goes...
But where the wind comes from
Nobody knows.

My Shadow by Robert Louis Stevenson (not included yet)

I have a little shadow that goes in and out with me,
And what can be the use of him is more than I can see.
He is very, very like me from the heels up to the head;
And I see him jump before me, when I jump into my bed.
The funniest things about him is the way he likes to grow-
Not at all like proper children, which is always very slow;
For he sometimes shoots up taller like an India rubber ball,
And he sometimes gets so little that there's none of him at all.
He hasn't got a notion of how children ought to play,
And can only make a fool of me in every sort of way.
He stays so close beside me, he's a coward you can see;
I'd think shame to stick to nursie as that shadow sticks to me!
One morning, very early, before the sun was up,
I rose and found the shining dew on every buttercup;
But my lazy little shadow, like an arrant sleepy-head,
Had stayed at home behind me and was fast asleep in bed.

Allie by Robert Graves (not included yet)

Allie, call the birds in,
The birds from the sky.
Allie calls, Allie sings,
Down they all fly.

First there came
Two white doves
Then a sparrow from his nest,
Then a clucking bantam hen,
Then a robin red-breast.

Allie, call the beasts in,
The beasts, every one.
Allie calls, Allie sings,
In they all run.
First there came
Two black lambs,
Then a grunting Berkshire sow,
Then a dog without a tail,
Then a red and white cow.

Allie, call the fish up,
The fish from the stream.
Allie calls, Allie sings,
Up they all swim.
First there came
Two gold fish,
A minnow and a miller's thumb,
Then a pair of loving trout,
Then the twisted eels come.

Allie, call the children,
Children from the green.
Allie calls, Allie sings,
Soon they run in.
First there came
Tom and Madge,
Kate and I who'll not forget
How we played by the water's edge
Till the April sun set.

Every Time I Climb a Tree by David McCord (not included yet)

Every time I climb a tree
Every time I climb a tree
Every time I climb a tree
I scrape a leg
Or skin a knee
And every time I climb a tree
I find some ants
Or dodge a bee
And get the ants
All over me.

And every time I climb a tree

Where have you been?
They say to me
But don't they know that I am free
Every time I climb a tree?

I like it best
To spot a nest
That has an egg
Or maybe three.

And then I skin
The other leg
But every time I climb a tree
I see a lot of things to see
Swallows rooftops and TV
And all the fields and farms there be
Every time I climb a tree
Though climbing may be good for ants
It isn't awfully good for pants
But still it's pretty good for me
Every time I climb a tree.

The Dragon by Nicole Q. Wong (not included yet)

A misunderstanding I've had
Was that a dragon was bad.
With his sharp claws, his look of death!
Not to mention his fiery breath,
How could he not be?
I was wrong, you see.

One day, I was skipping happily in the meadow,
When I came across a rather upset old fellow.
"Good day," said he,
Bowing down to me,
And I was too shocked to speak.

Yes, with his breath and his sharp talons,
I had met a real live dragon.
"What's wrong?" I asked him, bowing too,
As he seemed conspicuously blue.

Then, without warning, he burst into tears
And was unmistakably trembling with fear!
"Oh, spare me!" he cried, covering his face.
"I just want to leave this miserable place!"

He told me how princes had killed his brothers,
And how they were after him too. His mother
Saved him by taking a princess hostage,

And that made her seem savage.

After my encounter with him,
I realized what matters is within.
Yes, I learned something you can't learn from books,
And it's that you can't judge anything by its looks.

Listen To The MUSTN'TS by Shel Silverstein

Listen to the MUSTN'TS, child,
Listen to the DON'TS
Listen to the SHOULDN'TS
The IMPOSSIBLES, the WONT'S
Listen to the NEVER HAVES
Then listen close to me-
Anything can happen, child,
ANYTHING can be

The Dolly by Jeanette Cheal

The dolly sat upon the shelf
in the toy maker's shop all by herself.
The dolly only had one eye,
so all the children passed her by.

They scoffed at the dolly;
they weren't very kind
Then a child came in with a dolly in mind.

Her mother led her around the shop.
At the shelf with the dolly her mother did stop.

The child reached out and felt for the dolly.
The toy maker shouted, "Dear child, I'm so sorry,
this dolly is blind; she only has one eye.
I've a dolly right here you might like to buy."

"No, this is the one," the child said to her mother.
"If I can't have her, I don't want any other."
So off dolly went with the child who was kind,
and just like the dolly, this child was blind.

The Blade And The Ax By Abimbola T. Alabi

On a bench, in Joe's little shed,
lying not too far apart,
were his ax and his switchblade,
having a quiet heart-to-heart.

"How small and weak you look,"
said the ax to the blade.
"You will never be able to do those deeds for which I'm made."

"For it's me that Joe will use to cut the boughs of trees.
You should see me at work sometime,
how I split a log with ease."

"A great help you are around performing these hefty tasks,
but stuff I do for Joe, you can't,"
replied the blade to the ax.

"Would he ever count on you
to cut or strip a wire bare?
Try slicing open packages too.
I'd love to see just how you'd fare."

"We're designed in unique ways;
you're not superior as you claim."
The mighty ax and the nifty blade needed by Joe all the same.

In the end, they both agreed
about their weaknesses and strengths.
Neither of them, they could see,
was truly a hundred percent.

From then on, they became pals,
got along and learned to relax.
Never again was there pride or strife
between the blade and the ax.

Imagination by Gabriel Fitzmaurice Imagination is the thing that Makes you magic
And
Gives you
Inspiration to make everything
New,
And
To Invent things that are

Only seen by you, where Nothing is impossible.
Imagine!

I AM by Lucinda Jacobs

I am a tortoise crawling out of bed in the morning
I am a cat lapping up my milk at breakfast
I am a puppy tumbling in the classroom door
I am an ant pushing my load uphill all day
I am an eagle diving on my snack at breaktime
I am a lizard snoozing in the sun of story time
I am a cheetah racing in the afternoon park
I am a lion roaring at the top of the hill
I am a bear with my honey at teatime
I am an owl blinking in the twilight
I am a salmon swimming upstream against sleep
I am the dreamer with dreams deep as the ocean.

I'VE NEWS FOR YOU by Unknown (Translated by Seán Hutton from ninth century Irish)

I've news for you;
the stag bellows,
winter's snow, summer's gone;
high cold wind sun low in sky,
short days,
heavy seas;
deep red bracken's
skeletal form,
barnacle goose's
customed call;
cold has seized
the bird's wings,
icy season;
that's my news.

THE RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS by Grace Wells

The recipe for happiness in our house is
to take a cup of flour,
and milk, two eggs, a pinch of salt,
and whisk for half an hour.

Then take the creamy mixture
to the steaming frying pan,
ladle little circles in,
as many as you can.

Watch them all turn gold and brown,
then sit down to eat,
sugar and lemon on one side,
pour maple syrup to complete.

THE JELLYLEG GERM by Catherine Ann Cullen

No way out of taking your medicine
whether your name is Evans or Edison, with those bugs you must be firm,
or you'll get caught by the jellyleg germ.

No matter if under the covers you slip,
dressed in your jammies or all in the nip,
the Jellyleg Germ will catch hold of your toe,
and greener and greener and greener you'll go!

So open up wide for the medicine spoon.
And the Jellyleg Germ will be gone very soon.
When he sees the bottle, he'll leg it for sure,
'cause his jelly legs shiver when he sees a cure!

FOX by Leanne O'Sullivan

Halfway along the way a fox appeared
out of the perishing hedgerows and stopped
on the road in front of him,

the lines of her breast straight and clear,
fear having fallen away from there.
What is she doing? he thought. She said,

I am waiting to see what you will do next.
That's funny, he said, beginning to follow,
I am doing the very same thing.

And that was the way they went, morning
after morning, the hedgerows turning
their infinite colours, the body with its one fire.

A Dream of a Plastic Bag by Lucinda Jacob

The plastic bag in the gutter looked up at the moon
and said, 'Yes,
I'd rather be a balloon.

'Perhaps if I could be rounder, puffier, stronger
tighter, airier,
just a lovelier vision of me ...'

A breath, a gust of air
bounced it along the pavement,
lifted it, bobbing and tumbling
lightly along the wall top and way into the night sky.
